From Your Alumni Office

As a chilly and snowy New Year begins, we send good wishes to each of you for 2014 to be filled with blessings for you and those you love.

The Feast of St. Thomas Aquinas Celebration will be Thursday, January 23rd at 11:00 am in Matesich Theatre and will be followed by Liturgy in Christ the King Chapel. Sister Sharon Zayak, OP, a Dominican Sister from Springfield, IL will present "Reflections on Earth Justice: That We Might Live."

Grab your date or a friend and join us on February 7th at MadLab Improv and Gallery. We will gather for dinner at a local restaurant then head to the show.

Save the date for February 20th for the annual Multicultural Reception. We are excited and honored to host Greta Russell '76 as our guest speaker. We also encourage you to make your annual gift to the Multicultural Gift Fund. This fund financially supports our multicultural students.

While our planned trip to Italy has been cancelled, check our web site for details regarding an alternate adventure. We will be traveling to Ireland in October and still have a few spaces available for this trip. The travel company will offer an information session on March 6, details to follow.

Save the date for April 26th! The Alumni Council is hosting the 2nd Annual ODU Alumni Panther 5k Walk Run. There will be activities for the whole family and a nice time to come back to campus.

Enjoy the snow and stay warm!

Best regards,

Ann & Kelsey

St. Thomas Aquinas Lecture

Each year on or near the Feast Day of St. Thomas Aquinas, which is Jan. 29, ODU celebrates with a special lecture. This year, Sister Sharon Zayac, O.P. will present "Reflections on Earth Justice: That We Might Live" at 11 a.m., Jan. 23. Sister Zayac's presentation is sponsored by the Center for Dominican Studies. Sister Zayac is the director of the Jubilee Farm. Located near Springfield, Ill., the farm is a 111-acre center for ecology and spirituality sponsored by Sister Zayac's congregation.

The Center for Dominican Studies serves as a resource for those interested in learning more about Dominican education, the Dominican charism, the history of Ohio Dominican University, and its mission and values. For more information on the Center and its programs, please visit www.ohiodominican.edu/dominicanstudies

Impressions: The work of Eliana Calle-Saari

A native of Columbia, Eliana Calle-Saari creates reductive woodblock prints which explore memory, heritage, and their interaction with the present. The exhibit will run Nov. 24, 2013 through Jan. 16, 2014 in the Wehrle Hall Gallery. The exhibit is free and open to the public.

Please contact Jeanette Knowles with questions.

ODU Alumni Date Night

We invite you to join us for a special alumni event in anticipation of Valentine's Day. Bring your special sweetie to our Alumni Date Night at MadLab Comedy Club.

For anyone who would like to join, we are planning on meeting for a pre-show alumni dinner at 7:00 p.m. Location TBA soon! Improv Showtime at 9:00 p.m.

Cost for the MadLab Comedy Show: $8.00 a person or $16.00 a couple. We are offering special rates for our very special Double Dominican's for only $10 a couple. You won't want to miss this evening!
