

Learning Lab: Drop-in Study Skills Assistance

Location: Spangler 304

By Appointment: spencera@ohiodominican.edu

Or search “Learning Strategies” in Tutor Trac

Overwhelmed by reading amounts? Unsure how to start an assignment? Want to take better notes? Looking for a way to organize information for more effective study and recall? Then the Learning Lab is the place for you!

What is the Learning Lab?

The Learning Lab is about learning strategy—how to effectively approach and study any subject. This service is intended to develop good general study habits. We can help you

- Set learning goals
- Identify and focus on key points
- Get the most out of your textbook
- Predict test questions
- Improve your memory
- Use study time more effectively

What to Expect?

1. Make an appointment using Tutor Trac or Come to Spangler 304 during LL drop in hours (NOTE: Preference will be given to appointments. Search ARC / Learning Strategy)
 - Sign in
 - If the LL is busy, Take a number for assistance
2. Have a seat and take out your study materials
 - If the LL is busy, display your assistance number and begin working on your own
3. Consult with LL staff to determine how to most effectively approach your study task
 - A drop-in consultation with LL staff may take 5 to 15 minutes and will not exceed ½ hour ; appointments are scheduled at 30 minutes intervals.
 - You are welcome to stay in the LL as you apply the learning strategies and to ask subsequent questions in turn

What to bring:

- Course syllabus
- Course Text book
- Assignment description
- Class notes
- Your efforts

What if I have content-specific questions?

For help understanding specific course-related concepts, we recommend:

- #1 resource is your professor; be sure to take advantage of office hours
- Make an appointment with an ARC content tutor
- Check out ARC online resources: www.ohiodominican.edu/arc